

The Palatka News and Advertiser

City Happenings and Personal Mention.

Dr. E. E. Jenkins is quite ill at Seabreeze.

P. J. Crogan, of Savannah, was here Monday.

A. A. King, of Dupont, was in town one day this week.

Harry and DeWitt Gray spent a few days here this week.

Horace Weller was a visitor to Jacksonville Sunday.

Dr. J. Leonard Burt was a visitor to Daytona last Sunday.

F. Watson, Bardin, was a business visitor here on Monday.

A. E. Wilson and Dr. Cyrus spent Sunday at Seabreeze.

Herbert Perry is spending a short vacation at his home in Pomona.

J. A. King, prominent citizen of Edgar, was in the city Wednesday.

W. M. Williams of San Mateo was in the city yesterday doing some rejoicing.

Miss Minnie Buky is the guest this week of Miss Josephine Bard, at Norwalk.

Miss Ada Buky is spending a month's vacation at Coronado beach, New Smyrna.

Hon. W. D. Allen of Fruitland was in the city yesterday just to see how the thing went.

Misses Ila and Ona Bond and Anna Partin are spending the week in Jacksonville.

Miss Helen Fearnside and Miss Alice Priddy are visiting at the beach—Seabreeze.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Parker and child are spending some time at the Riverside hotel, Green Cove Springs.

Misses Laura and Alice Whiteside expect to leave to-day for a trip to Kansas City, Mo., and other points west.

Miss Emma Cox was in the city this week, from Gainesville, on a visit to her parents, Judge and Mrs. M. I. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Meyer, and Mr. Clarence Meyer returned from a pleasant visit to the seaside on Tuesday evening.

A pair of spectacles found on the street have been left at this office. Owner can have same by calling and proving property.

Misses Mary Taylor and Clyde Estes left Thursday for New Smyrna, where they will remain for several weeks on the beach.

Capt. N. H. Thomas left Thursday last for Hendersonville, N. C., where he will spend some time rusticiating in the mountains.

John Hancock of Bostwick is finally convinced that the country is saved, and prides himself on the fact that he helped save it.

County Clerk Price has been confined to his home the past two or three days with fever. He expects to be in his office again to-day.

There were exactly 14 life insurance men at work in Palatka on Monday and Tuesday and there are those who say we are not a long suffering people.

Maj. Geo. P. Fowler was over from Hastings this week listening to the election returns and commenting on the time when he played a winning hand in the game.

Louis A. Smith is spending the week at Goodall, Fla., on the beach, listening to the melancholy murmur of old ocean's breakers, fishing, bathing and enjoying himself generally.

Ernest Owens of Satusma Heights was in the city Saturday. He accompanied his sister Miss Kate, thus far, she being en route to Daytona, where she will spend a while as the guest of Mrs. J. F. O'Hara.

Lollas Cone is home again after a sojourn of some time at various watering resorts in the Carolinas. Mr. Cone took the trip to recuperate his health, and his appearance would indicate that the outing resulted in much benefit to him.

Mr. Nye, proprietor of the Graham house, received a telegram on Tuesday announcing the death of his infant daughter at Gilmer, Texas. Mrs. Nye died last February, when the baby was but a week old, and the little one was taken to Texas by a niece who was caring for it.

A surprise party was given in honor of Misses Hattie and Constance Cooper, of Jacksonville, at the hospitable home of Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Crill, on Palatka Heights, last Friday evening. Many young people were in attendance, and a thoroughly enjoyable time was spent by all.

Samuel Malachi a fast black who committed an assault with intent to murder in June, 1901, was captured by sheriff Howell, in Jacksonville, last week, and has been held by Justice Rowton in the sum of $500 for appearance before the next grand jury.

Chas. Shepherd, a big, burly black, was up before Acting Municipal Judge Blackwell in the city court Monday morning, charged with using profane language and threatening one Emma Summers, whose reputation at best would not stand a microscopic examination. After hearing all the facts in the case the judge assessed Shepherd $25 and costs, in default of which he was sent to jail for 30 days.

The late Hon. James Macgillivray-Chesser of Hollister states that while he may show some little disfigurement, he is still in the ring.

Hon. R. W. Davis will leave today for the Delaware beach resort from which he was called to attend the funeral of his daughter. He will be gone but a few days.

Mr. A. P. Postell, a leading merchant of Welaka, was in the city yesterday. He is not particularly pleased with the outcome of Tuesday's legislative primary, and what is more, he don't give a rap who knows it.

There was a particularly loud report from Grandin. At any rate there is at least one prophet who has honor to cremate in his ain country, and John P. Wall can be proud that he is the prophet.

Percy Elder has been ill with fever the past several days, and left this morning for his home in Georgia to get some home nursing. His illness necessitates the return of Mr. Haughton who is expected back today.

Mr. Rogers, the new county commissioner elect from the 5th district was receiving the congratulations of his friends in the city yesterday. Mr. Rogers is from Putnam Hall, and it is freely predicted that he is going to make a most valuable member of the board.

Miss Kate L. Lucas will leave for New York the last of the month on her annual fall trip. Miss Grace Rhodes of Palisade, Neb., has accepted a position in the millinery store and will have charge of the business during Miss Lucas' absence.

Hon. J. H. Harp of Crescent City came in with the returns from his precinct yesterday. Mr. Harp doesn't often come to Palatka now and his many friends in this city were pleased that something gave him an excuse to come. Politically Mr. Harp is just "sawing wood."

Capt. J. M. Powers an old and honored citizen of the county and city is in the city this week for a few days, en route to the east coast, from Macon, Ga., where he has resided during the past year. The captain is looking well and seems to be enjoying his visit with old friends as fully as they are to see him.

H. M. DeMontmolin, for the past 21 years a well-known citizen of Palatka, during the last 15 years of which he has held a responsible position with the Plant System Railway, has severed his connection with that company and cast his lot with the New York Life Insurance company, for which company he will act as special agent in South Georgia and Florida.

The band concert at the stand last Friday evening was listened to by quite a large sized and appreciative crowd. The band did some splendid playing; it is getting better and better, too, at every concert, and has plainly demonstrated that it can serve 'em up in any style from the old familiar selections with trimmings to the soul-stirring strains of the rag-time variety. Another public concert will be given on Friday night at 8 o'clock. It is the intention of the band to give one concert each week throughout the summer, on the usual night.

Miss Alda Ennis, who has for some time creditably filled the position of operator at the Western Union telegraph office in this city, left Sunday for Atlanta, Ga., whither she went to take a place in the office of the company in that city. By her obliging and courteous disposition in the management of the office, and her friendliness toward all, Miss Ennis won a host of friends here who give vent to many sincere expressions of regret at her departure, but all join in wishing her success in her new situation. Miss Leone Ennis has been transferred from the DeLand office, and took the place of her sister in the office here.

The dance of the Gem City Guards was pulled off on scheduled time last Thursday night at the Armory. The attendance was good, there being at least 80 people present, noted among them many visiting young ladies and gentlemen. Owing to the very liberal attendance only 25 cents was charged for dancing, which will be the regular price hereafter, unless on special occasions. The hop will be repeated to-night (Thursday), when a good crowd is expected. The Armory has been made more comfortable by the installation of incandescent lights, and the heat is not near so great as before. Finley has been engaged to furnish music for the dance tonight.

Sheriff Howell made a trip to Miami one day last week for the purpose of bringing back a negro wanted in this county for petit larceny, who was captured by the Dade county authorities. Mr. Howell secured his prisoner and started home with him. When the train pulled into Ft. Pierce, and while the sheriff was looking from the car window, Chas. Drayton, the negro who got rough and sliced a colored woman with a knife during the festivities of the 28th ult., in Palatka, was seen and recognized, and before he scented trouble was placed under arrest, and brought to the city. The preliminary hearing of both prisoners was had before Judge Cox on Monday, and the former soon got his—just four months as a boarder of the balliff, while Drayton was held for the action of the Circuit Court.

Third Quarterly Conference

Next Sunday at the St. James Methodist Episcopal church in this city, the services will be conducted by the Rev. Chas. Allen Fulwood, D. D., presiding elder of this district. Rev. Dr. R. L. Honiker, pastor of the church, extends a cordial invitation to all, without church engagements on that day to attend.

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY.

Mrs. Rosa Davis Garwood Dies of Heart Failure— Was Daughter of Congressman Davis.

A telegram received in this city last Thursday evening announced that Mrs. Rosa Davis Garwood had died suddenly that day at her home, McCays, Tenn.

The news soon spread and brought gloom to the city, for deceased had grown to womanhood in Palatka and the happy, lovable girl of other days was known to every body. Her many attributes of mind and heart had greatly endeared her to the people, while her natural and acquired graces and accomplishments won for her ardent and life long admirers wherever she went.

Mrs. Garwood's remains, accompanied by the sorrowing husband arrived here on Saturday. Judge Davis also met the body at Atlanta. The funeral was held from St. Marks Episcopal church, of which deceased was a member, on Sunday afternoon at 3:30, and a very large number of friends followed the remains to the grave in West View cemetery, where she was buried beside her mother and her two little boys, whose death occurred last year. There were many handsome floral tributes, mutely testifying to the affection entertained by the donors for the life and memory of Rosa Davis Garwood.

The pall bearers were: W. S. Burdette, G. C. Crom, D. W. Ram-saur, N. H. Moragne, S. P. Hollins-rake and H. Strunz.

Rosa Davis Garwood was born in Blakely, Ga., Feb'y. 7th, 1876, and died at McCays, Tenn. Aug. 7, 1902. She was the second daughter of Congressman Rob't. W. Davis, and Mrs. Peter Mercer Davis, and the wife of Glover B. Garwood, formerly of Monticello.

"There is a Reaper whose name is Death. And with his sickle keen He reaps the bearded grain at a breath. And the Flowers that grow between."

Death of Miss Loper.

Miss Annie D. Loper, who, with her aged mother, Mrs. Julia F. Loper, has resided in Palatka since 1888, passed to her rest, at the Seaside Inn, Goodall, Fla., on Sunday night, August 10th, 1902, after one week's illness. Impressive funeral services were held from the Episcopal church, Daytona, the pall bearers, all citizens of Palatka, being A. E. Wilson, Capt. H. Y. Snow, Dr. W. H. Cyrus, Louis C. Canova, Capt. J. Edward Lucas and Jos. H. Haughton. Her remains were accompanied to Charleston, S. C., her former home, by her relative, Mr. Con. Bailey Marvin, where the interment was made in beautiful Magnolia cemetery.

Miss Loper was the aunt of Miss Anita A. Bailey and Ex-Mayor G. Loper Bailey of this city, and they, with the aged mother of deceased, are grief stricken at the loss of their loved one.

During her residence in Palatka, Miss Loper, though feeble in body, has exercised a strong influence in her quiet way for all that makes for the best in life and tends to blessedness in the eternal world. Patient in suffering she has been an example of that loveliness of character, which through death, will linger and speak through the lives of those of her relatives and friends who linger, and who will treasure her memory as a blessed heritage.

To the stricken relatives the sympathy of the people of this city is abundantly given.

Loss to the County.

John P. Wall Jr., was in the city last Friday en route to Seattle, Washington, whither he goes to engage in his chosen profession of the law. Mr. Wall, who was but recently graduated from the law department of Washington and Lee University, is a young man of rare native ability and scholarly attainments; an ideal representative of the younger generation of courteous southern gentlemen who are in this day seeking far from home opportunities for entering upon the battle of life in the growing cities of the northwest where life is more strenuous, and the winning of the prize is more quickly accomplished. Putnam county and Florida can ill afford to spare young men of Mr. Wall's class, but until the time comes which shall usher in our awakening, many more will depart.

The News predicts for Mr. Wall a brilliant and useful career, and joins with the people of his home county in wishing him God speed.

Big Catch of Fish.

A printed dodger containing a record of fish caught from Keating's pier at Goodall, Fla., on August 7th has been received here. The record is of 50 fish landed in three hours and a half, with the names of the parties who caught them, together with the weight of each fish. Palatka sojourners at this seaside resort played a conspicuous part in this catch. The following is the list of catches to the record of Palatkans; HON. B. P. CALHOUN, Palatka, 5, weighing 23, 20, 25 & 27 lbs. HARRY MERRYDAY, Palatka, 2, weighing 21 & 28 1/2 lbs. A. F. CULPEPPER, Palatka, 2, weighing 24 & 21 1/2 lbs. R. C. HOWELL, Palatka, 3, weighing 24, 26 & 27 lbs. MRS. W. P. MERRIAM, Palatka, 2, weighing 25 & 22 lbs. MRS. E. C. HOWELL, Palatka, 1, weighing 25 lbs. MERCER G. DAVIS, Palatka, 1, weighing 25 lbs. EDNA KERRY, Palatka, 2, weighing 26 & 27 lbs. WALTER M. DAVIS, Palatka, 1, weighing 29 lbs. JULIAN C. CALHOUN, Palatka, 4, weighing 21, 24, 22 & 23 lbs. ARNOLD R. CANOVA, Palatka, 2, weighing 24 & 23 lbs. A. GRANGER, Palatka, 1, weighing 25 1/2 lbs. HELEN FEARNSIDE, Palatka, 1, weighing 23 lbs. CAPT. H. Y. SNOW, Palatka, 2, weighing 21 1/2 & 27 lbs.

Thanks to the People.

Mr. James M. Chesser said yesterday: "Please thank the democrats of the county who gave me their votes, for their loyal support. I am profoundly grateful, but always a submissive democrat. I submit now cheerfully and loyally to the expressed wish of the majority."
